AIT's core values are inclusion, acceptance, innovation, and authenticity, and we strive for these values to flourish at all AIT events, seminars, and performances.

INCLUSION: AIT promotes contemporary skating as a method of collaboration between elite skaters, companies, and teams and beginner skaters, companies, and teams. We seek to break down barriers between these groups so they both can invent, create, improvise, share, learn, and grow from one another to develop this art form. We strive to offer an artistic-focused trajectory that can work side-by-side with the competitive structure of figure skating, creating healthier, passionate, and well-rounded skaters in the long term.
~ Everyone has something to share, everyone has something to learn.

ACCEPTANCE: AIT teaches tools to incorporate mindfulness, mind-to-body practices, and healthy mental training to offer space for skaters to view themselves as authentic and integral contributors of the artistic skating community. ~ Humans first, skaters second.
